

Gerunds and Infinitives: Infinitives as Delayed Subjects

FORM

ADJECTIVE + (for + NOUN/PRONOUN) + INFINITIVE

EXAMPLES

Income tax forms are hard for many people to fill out.
The forms are too difficult to understand.

Complete the sentences with (for + NOUN/PRONOUN) + INFINITIVE.

Ex. These exercises are practical for us to learn English.

1. It's unusual _____.
2. Things like that are easy _____.
3. It's not very common _____.
4. The box was too heavy _____.
5. The day was too hot _____.
6. Don't you think it was strange _____?
7. This lesson is easy _____.
8. It is hard _____.
9. That dress is too formal _____.
10. Fifty kilometres is too far _____.

Complete the following sentences.

1. Gillian is really good at math. These problems are not _____ for her to do.
2. Juan loves laughter. It will be _____ for him to go to the comedy festival.
3. After winning the lottery, Dave was too _____ to go to bed early.
4. Camilla is lonely these days. It will be good _____ her to go out with some friends.
5. It is too _____ to go sailing today.
6. Marcel is a baseball fan. It will be great _____ him to go to the game.
7. Laura loves movies. It will be terrific for _____ to go to the French film festival.
8. Tracy doesn't like politics. It won't be fun for her _____ the debates on television.
9. Bill never exercises. He's too _____ to move that desk by himself.
10. Keith is too _____ to go to the club with us.
11. Grant loves horse racing. It will be great for him _____ the Kentucky Derby.
12. Maria was too busy _____ you yesterday.
13. Karen is too _____ to keep up with Kathy.
14. Jack is too _____ to get into the army.
15. Millie is too sceptical _____ Stacey's stories.