

Vocabulary : Phrasal Verbs

USE

Mode of transportation	Entering	Leaving
car, taxi	get in	get out	closed
small plane			smaller
small helicopter	get on	get off bicycle motorcycle / bike
horse
raft, lifeboat
bus , tram(way)	larger
subway / metro
large plane
cruiseline
transport helicopter

see off: to accompany someone to a point of departure

e.g. an airport, a train station, a terminal

pick up: to meet someone at a point of arrival

e.g. an airport, a train station, a bus station

take off: to be in an airplane, leaving the ground at the start of a flight touch down / land: to be in an airplane, coming down to the ground after a flight.

I saw my colleague off at the airport when she flew to New York.

Justine gets on the train at Grand Central Station.

Ray is having a hard time getting on the horse.

Fill in the blanks with the correct expression.

- I'll _____ my cousin _____ at the airport on Thursday morning.
- The plane _____ from the runway as soon as it picks up speed.
- I'll _____ the plane as soon as the others in front of me start moving towards the exit.
- Amy _____ the bus to go to the shopping centre.
- After a busy day, Michael _____ his wife at the airport. She left on a business trip.
- The man _____ the subway and went to work.
- The fans screamed wildly as the movie star _____ her private jet.
- The news reporters _____ the helicopter to go and view the traffic accident.

fill out	ask out	call off	pick out	get over	figure out
try on	put off	look after	put away	put up with	give up

Fill in the blanks with the correct phrasal verb from the choices above.

1. They didn't love each other, so they _____ the wedding.
2. I _____ doing my taxes for months. I have to do it tonight because they are due tomorrow.
3. You have to _____ her. She broke up with you almost a year ago. Why don't you _____ my sister? She is very nice.
4. Let's go out for dinner tonight. We'll get my mother to _____ the children.
5. She thought the dress looked great in the window. But when she _____ it _____ in the store, she decided that it didn't look great on her.
6. Could you _____ your toys? I'm tired of stepping on them when I walk into the living room.
7. How do you _____ living in such a messy house? I could never do it!
8. Could you help me _____ some flowers at the store for Deb? I don't know what to get her.
9. You should _____ trying to be like someone else. Be yourself. You're a great person.
10. I can't _____ how someone so unorganised could manage such a busy office.
11. _____ this form in pen. Make sure you answer all the questions.