

Continuous Tenses: Future

FORM:

We form the “future continuous” by using “will be” and the “ing” of the main verb

USE:

To use the “future continuous”, the action must be continuing (not finished) at a specific future time, or combined with a second action introduced by words like “when” or “while” or “if”.

EXAMPLES:

He will be working at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

We will be eating supper when she comes home.

She will be taking a shower while he sleeps.

If you call me at 7 o'clock tonight, I will be watching TV.

Supply the FUTURE CONTINUOUS TENSE or SIMPLE FUTURE of the verbs in parentheses.

1. If you get back at 4 o'clock, we _____ (have) tea.
2. Next spring, we _____ (visit) Korea.
3. Tomorrow afternoon, I _____ (practice) the violin.
4. I _____ (sit) in the café at the usual time.
5. Please don't make any noise after nine, we _____ (prepare) our presentation.
6. It probably _____ (sleet) when you return tonight.
7. If you arrive before six, I _____ (get) ready for the party.
8. Tomorrow afternoon at this time, we _____ (write) our English exam.
9. Don't call Ron after eleven. He _____ (sleep).
10. When he begins university in September, she _____ (work) for her father.
11. Next February, he _____ (begin) his training course.
12. If you phone her at eight, she probably _____ (put) the baby to sleep.