Future Simple: Be Going To With Who, What, Where

FORM:

Questions about the Subject:

- 1. Who (person) + be (am, is, are) + going to + base verb?
- 2. What (thing) + be (am, is, are) + going to + base verb?

Questions about the Object:

- 1. Whom (person) (Who in conversation)+ be (am, is, are) + going to + base verb?
- 2. What (thing) + be (am, is, are) + going to + base verb?
- 3. Where (place) + be (am, is, are) + going to + base verb?

USE:

When who or what begins a question, it is asking about the subject:

E.g. Who is going to come to the party?

subject

John and his sister are going to come to the party.

E.g. What is going to happen to him?

subject

Something bad is going to happen to him.

When whom, what, or where begins a question about the object:

- o you must place the verb "be" after the question word.
- E.g. Whom is Lucy going to see in concert? (Who in conversational English) object

Lucy is going to see her favorite group in concert.

object

o What is Brian going to do tomorrow?

object

Brian is going to work on his report tomorrow.

object

o Where are they going to stay?

object

They are going to stay at my cousin's house in Paris.

object

Read each sentence. Write a question that the underlined words answer. Example: Ana and Jack are going to send us an e-mail in Chicago.
1	1. 2. 3.
	<ol> <li>Who is going to send us an e-mail in Chicago?</li> <li>What are they going to send us in Chicago?</li> </ol>
	3. Where are they going to send us the e-mail?
1.	Brad is going to move next to Jane .
2.	Rita and Ralph are going to see a movie at the Paramount.
3.	Lily is going to put her summer clothes in the closet.
4.	Andrea is going to watch a video on T.V. in her den .
5.	Terry is going to wash his car in the driveway.
6.	Ruth and her husband are going to play golf in Florida.
7.	Max is going to cut the grass.