

Beginner 2 – Quiz 4

Rewrite these sentences and write the numbers out in full.

1. The shoes cost $47.30.

2. Sonya was born on January 17th, 1988.

3. Mark was the 11th president of the company.

4. They won $2,544,226 in the lottery.

5. We bought a house for $275,000.

6. I won a prize because I was the 1,000,000th visitor to the store.

Put these sentences into the SIMPLE PAST TENSE.

1. Peter and Claire are partners.

INT.

NEG.

2. The teacher talks with him.

INT.

NEG.

3. The children stay in their room.

INT.

NEG.

4. Sam and Rachel wash their car.

INT.

NEG.

Put the verbs in brackets into the SIMPLE PAST TENSE.

1. These flowers (grow) in my mother's garden. _____
2. Jane (fall) and hurt her shoulder. _____
3. Grace (wear) an evening gown to the dance. _____
4. The police easily (hold) back the crowd. _____
5. The wind (blow) down the Christmas decorations. _____
6. They often (meet) in the park on Sundays. _____
7. The fence (keep) people out of the yard. _____

In the blanks at the right, write the letters "T", "D" or "ID" to show whether we pronounce the final "ED" of each word as "T", "D" or a separate syllable "ID".

1.	leveled		6.	discarded
2.	agreed		7.	pumped
3.	yelled		8.	mixed
4.	shouted		9.	grunted
5.	spoiled		10.	hunted

Put either TO or FOR in the blanks.

1. I am studying English _____ get a raise.
2. They are traveling to Australia _____ see his relatives.
3. Sasha came to our house _____ a visit.
4. The children called their mother _____ permission.
5. My sister phoned me _____ tell me she had a new job.
6. My parents moved to Canada _____ a better life.

Fill in the blanks in the dialogue below with the correct PRONOUN or ADJECTIVE.

Jim: Hello?

Maureen: Hi, Jim. How are you? I really enjoyed _____ on our date last night.

Jim: I did too. Except when _____ car broke down.

Maureen: Yeah, that was interesting. Did you get it fixed?

Jim: My brother and I are going to do it _____. But I need to go to the hardware store _____ has the part I need. But I don't have a car!

Maureen: We can use _____. I can pick you up in fifteen minutes.

Jim: Perfect. I am _____ forever!

Describe your best friend using vocabulary from the week.

Put the given words in the correct column.

length	one quarter	centimetre	triangle
kilometre	rectangle	width	three quarters
circle	two thirds	one third	oval
one half	metre	square	height

Fractions	Measurements	Shapes