

Adverbs: Christmas Shopping

READING TEXT

Christmas is just around the corner and Jane is ready to do her Christmas shopping. She has many friends and relatives on her shopping list. Her brother John sometimes skis in the winter. She will buy him blue ski mittens, a red ski hat and a scarf to match. Her younger sister Sally usually dresses formally at work. Jane will buy Sally a beautiful silk blouse. Jane's best friend, Laura, also likes formal clothes. Jane will get her a blouse too. Jane's Uncle Ted occasionally goes fishing on the weekends. He needs clothes for cold rainy weather. He will be happy to receive a navy blue waterproof raincoat. Jane's mother is always cold in the winter. Jane will buy her a flannel nightgown, an electric blanket and a pair of slippers. Jane's boyfriend is very athletic. Jane will buy him a track suit. Jane wants to buy her father a cell phone but it is too expensive, so she will buy her father a brown, leather belt. She will also get him a nice wallet. Aunt Rose will receive a soft pair of suede gloves from Jane. Jane's grandmother is very interested in movies so Jane will get her movie gift certificates. And that is Jane's Christmas shopping list!
