

Comparatives and Superlatives: Nouns

FORM:	Noun	Comparative	Superlative
	money (non-count)	more money than less money than	the most money the least money
	friends (count)	more friends than fewer friends than	the most friends the fewest friends

USE: For non-count nouns use MORE/LESS + NOUN + THAN for the comparative form and THE MOST/LEAST + NOUN for the superlative form.

For count nouns use MORE/FEWER + PLURAL NOUN + THAN for the comparative form and THE MOST/FEWEST + PLURAL NOUN for the superlative form.

EXAMPLES: My mother earns more money than my sister. (money: non-count noun)
My father earns the most money.
My sister earns less money than my mother.
My brother earns the least money.
I have fewer books than Jack. (books: count noun)
Peter has the fewest books.

Write sentences using the nouns provided in either the COMPARATIVE or SUPERLATIVE form.

1. time (comparative)

2. furniture (comparative)

3. experience (superlative)

4. friends (superlative)

5. homework (comparative)

6. pollution (comparative)
