

Present Perfect: Adverbs of Frequency

FORM: Has / Have (not) + adverb of time + past participle

Always – (100%) all of the time

Sometimes / occasionally – (30%) some of the time / now and then

Usually – (90%) habitually, normally

Rarely – (10%) hardly ever, seldom, infrequently

Often – (60%) frequently, many times

Never – (0%) not ever

USE: The adverb ever can only be used in questions to ask if someone has had a particular experience. The other time adverbs dealt with here, give us an idea of how often a person has had an experience. In affirmative and negative sentences, time adverbs are placed between has / have and the past participle.

EXAMPLES: Have you ever seen a bear in the forest?
No, I have never seen one.
She has usually seen one at the zoo.

Write questions and answer them using the ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY and the PRESENT PERFECT.

- Niagara Falls _____ .
_____ .
- oysters _____ .
_____ .
- exercise _____ .
_____ .
- beer _____ .
_____ .
- laundry _____ .
_____ .