

Prepositions: Review

1. My eight-year-old son Mark is afraid _____ thunder and lightning.
2. My mother really likes my friend Ahmed because he is always so polite _____ her.
3. Fifty miles is equal _____ eighty kilometers.
4. A: How do I get to your house?
B: Are you familiar _____ the big red barn on Birch Road? My house is just past that and on the left.
A: Oh, sure. I know where it is.
5. It's so hot! I'm thirsty _____ a big glass of ice water.
6. My boss was nice _____ me after I made that mistake, but I could tell she wasn't pleased.
7. A: Harry, try some of this pasta. It's delicious.
B: No, thanks. My plate is already full _____ food.
8. Four council members were absent _____ the meeting last night.
9. A: Why are you so friendly with Mr. Parsons? He's always so mean to everybody.
B: He's always been very kind _____ me, so I have no reason to treat him otherwise.
10. My sister is so angry _____ me. She won't even speak to me.
11. Is everybody ready _____ dinner? Let's eat before the food gets cold.
12. He left _____ the airport very early so that he would be _____ time to meet Mary's flight.
13. I am responsible _____ any mistakes. I promise to be more careful _____ the future.
14. A: Is everybody here?
B: Yes, Madam.
A: Our exam will be _____ June 6, 2003. It will be _____ the morning _____ 8:30 a.m. I advise you to study _____ the weekend.
B: Excuse me, Madam. I was absent _____ class last week.
A: Then you will have to get the notes _____ one of your classmates.