Pronouns: Subject Pronouns
FORM:	Singular:	Plural:
	Ι	we
	you	you
	she	they he
	it
USE:	The Subject Pronoun or "Personal Pronoun" replaces a noun – person or thing. It can identify a person or thing when we do not know its name. It is placed before the verb. Remember, if the noun is plural, the subject pronoun must be plural too. E.g. Carol is nice. She is friendly. The girl and boy are tall. They are tall.
EXAMPLES:	My sister is 29 years old. She is young. The cat is on the chair. It is cute. John and I are brothers. We are twins.

Substitute the underlined words with the SUBJECT PRONOUNS.

1.	Helen is a wonderful person.	4.	My father is busy in the study.
2.	John and I are at the hospital.	5.	The boys are very tall.
3.	My sister is in the kitchen.	6.	The waitress is a kind woman.

7.	The coffee is on the desk.	10.	The classroom is empty.
8.	Mrs. Jones is in the office.	11.	Mr. Smith is an excellent lawyer.
9.	Rita and I are at work.	12.	The students are tired today.

The subject pronouns in the sentences below are not correct. Circle the incorrect PRONOUNS and write the correct PRONOUNS in the blanks.

Omar and Oscar are from Mexico.	You are Mexican.
Karen is twenty-five years old.	He is from Canada.
You and Kaoru are from Japan.	They are Japanese.
Ottawa is the capital of Canada.	She is the capital city.
Max and I are from Rome.	They are Italian.
Lara and Pedro are from Brazil.	You are Brazilian.
Soo and Yuni are from Seoul.	We are Korean.